After a preliminary warming up Major Delmar came out for the trial. He went round the first turn, broke and came back. At the second attempt he went away as steady as a clock and reached the quarter in 30%. He flashed by the half mile pole Then the grand stand rose and cheered as the gallant horse flew round the top turn to the three-quarter pole in 1:29 and came home to the wire in 2:00. Two running horses hitched to sulkies were provided for pacemakers. The sulky equipped with the wind shield was driven by George R. Spear, regular trainer for E. E. Smathers, Maj. Delmar's owner. In the 2:11 class trot Promise was the choice at even money. He was beaten by a nose in the first heat and won the second by a head. In the third heat he was a poor third and the judges were so dissatisfied that they declared all pools off on the race and fined the driver $100. In the 2:18 pace George R. Peck was the choice, but he was a counterfeit as Arzill, after the first heat, won easily. Sum-

WON THE "TANK" HONORS

SOPHOMORES AT PURDUE.

Five Thousand Spectators Watched the Fierce Struggle, in Which the "Sophs" Were Victorious.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 25.-Upholding the traditions of their predecessors at Purdue, the freshmen and sophomore classes to-night massed around the "tank" for the decisive scrap of the year. To-night being the eve of the first football game is the final date for the annual "tank scrap," and both classes prepared for battle with grim determination. Last night the freshmen held a meeting and laid plans for repainting their numerals on the tank, and early this morning a band of fifty of the first-year men succeeded in restoring the "'07" in huge figures on the tank's surface. The sophomores learned this morning of the fact, and no attempt was made to-day to blot out the numerals, the sophs deciding to await the result of the final battle.

The two classes came together about 10 o'clock, surrounded by a crowd of five thousand spectators. The sophomores numbered 275, while the freshmen had 300 in line. It was more than an hour before the battle was over, and the sophomores were victoriacterized the racing at Highland Park to- ous. Early in the night the freshmen had the better of it, but the second-year men covered that several freshmen had been injured and doctors were called. A. W. Stevenson, of Chicago, a freshman. had a rib broken and suffered serious internal injuries. He was removed in the ambulance to St. Elizabeth's Hospital. E. L.

Ottorbeck, a freshman, was severely hurt in the neck. J. Coppes, a sophomore, was hurt internally, and a freshman named Herran was knocked unconscious. Although the sophomores won the scrap, the freshman numerals still remain on the tank, the first-year students having stationed men at the top of the 75-foot reservoir armed with buckets of water. All attempts of the sophomores to climb the tank were unsuccessful. Later the freshmen prisoners were led through town and forced to cheer for their captors.

CHANGES IN THE I.U. TEAM

AT VARIOUS POSITIONS.

Coval Is Now Playing at End-Earlham Ready for First Game-First Scrimmage at Notre Dame.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Sept. 25 .- Shifting and changing of positions have been the order the past few practice days of the Indiana University football candidates. Coaches Horne and King have worked the best men in the squad at several positions, and they feel that the relative strength of most of the men is now known. Coval, a strong man back of the line all last year, has been harnessed in at end a few times, but the change is only temporary. Long at center still shows increasing power, and displays strength in holding the line. 'Fatty" King lined up with the second team, and while he was too much for Long, the opposing center, still the 'varsity support broke into the scrub line and was able to make gains. Ex-Captain Smith, who has liant playing, and Mendenhall at tackle is already in position to make the 'varsity

No 'varsity team will be selected until the first game is played, which will be with Wabash to-morrow. All men of promise and who have demonstrated their worth in practice will be given a chance to-morrow to show their metal in actual contest. Experience seems to the the great lacking feature of most of the men. They have the requirements in weight, most at least, and are beginning to handle themselves much better, but still the great mass of the candidates that appear each afternoon are a lot of green and inexperienced material. There seems, however, in the minds of the coaches no doubt that they will be easily able to round out a good eleven, wanting neither in weight nor

In the first football game of the season here to-morrow Coach Horne will greet the Wabash team with a line averaging 203 pounds. Long, at center, will weigh 221 pounds and Railsback and Shirk, guards, weigh over 204 each. Clevenger, the best man on the team, is the lightest weight. The line-up at the opening of the game will be: Smith, left end; Wade, left tackle: Shirk, left guard; Long, center; Railsback, right guard; Mendenhall, right tackle; Coval, right end; Clevenger, quar-ter; Kent, left half; Knight, full back; Kiser, right half.

PURDUE PLAYS TO-DAY.

Part of 'Varsity Team Will Line Up Against Englewood.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 25 .- With Allen and Captain Osborne out of the game the Purdue football eleven will meet the Englewood High School team on Stuart Field tomorrow afternoon. The contest will be the first of the season here and on Purdue's showing will depend her chances against the stronger teams, for Illinois, Northwestern and Chicago have all played Englewood this season and the scores rolled up indicate the relative strength of the teams. Coach Cutts will not play all of his 'varsity men, although the backs will be used for a time at least. There will be no attempt on the part of the Purdue coach to roll up a big score, for Cutts will take no chances of injuring any of his men. He has few strong substitutes left as it is, for many of the strongest candidates for the 'varsity have been forced off the squad by injuries sustained in practice. The team's probable line up for to-morrow is: Left end. Powell: left tackle, Long; left guard, Riebel; center, Hamilton; right guard, Furr; right tackle, McManus; right end, S. Miller: quarter back, Johnson or Osborne; left half back, Zimmerman; right half back, Mowrey or Holter; full back, Thomas.

FIRST GAME AT EARLHAM.

Varsity Team Will Line Up Against

a Scrub Eleven. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., Sept. 25 .- The football College in a game Saturday afternoon between the 'varsity eleven and the Reserves. The latter team is composed of all players not assigned to the regular team. The game will give Coach Miller a better estimate of every man on the squad and to see what each fellow can do. Any new man that can make good in Saturday's game stands a good chance of getting in the game with De Pauw on Oct. 3. Eight old players will have positions the 'varsity team-Stanley, Leggett, Hobbs, Brunson, Tuttle, Macey, Harvey and Scott. Joe Tuttle, the popular captain of '01, is back in the game, playing his old position at quarter. Although he only played one game last year, he kept in touch with football by assisting in the coaching and will have little trouble in holding his position this year. He is a good sprinter and under the new rules will have a chance to show his ability in carrying the ball.

SCRIMMAGE AT NOTRE DAME. Varsity Men Did Good Work Against the Scrub Team.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 25 .- The football squad lined up for their first scrimmage at Notre Dame yesterday. The scrubs kicked off to the 'varsity and while the veterans had the fall fifteen of the other candidates opposed the eleven. Nyere and Lonergan were at right and full back, Bracken was at one end and Silver at the other. Donovan was the third back and did good work in his first try-out. After a few minutes' play, during which both teams put up a poor article of football, the bail was passed over to the scrubs, their extra men sent to the side lines and the remainder of the hour was spent in assaulting

FOOTBALL GAMES TO-DAY.

Nearly All the Prominent Teams Have Games Scheduled.

All the important college teams in the United States have hard games scheduled for to-day. Local interest is centered in the game between the Shortridge High School of this city and the Sheridan High School. The game will be played at Sheridan, and although Captain Clark of the local team is confident of victory it is safe to say that the game will not be won by an overwhelming score, as the Sheridan High School team has been defeated but once in three years and the team representing that school this year is said to be faster than last year's eleven. The M. T. H. S. team was originally scheduled to play the Noblesville High School team at Noblesville to-day. When this game was canceled Captain Saunderson and Coach Orme COACHES ARE TRYING CANDIDATES tried to arrange a game with the Danville High School, but this game also failed to materialize. Eleven Is in Good Shape for the Game To-Day-M. T. H. S. Team Has No Game Scheduled To-Day.

The Shortridge team will play at Sheridan to-day. The team indulged in light scrimmages yesterday, but Coach Brewer would not allow the lads to do any tackling as he wanted the eleven to be in the best possible shape for the game to-day. Coach Brewer and Manager Tuck will accompany the team to Sheridan as will a number of rooters from the North Side The Manual Training High School team will not play to-day. Coach Orme tried to arrange a game with the Danville High School for to-day, but no response was had to his letter and the team will rest to-day. Captain Saunderson stated yesterday that the team would not appear on the practice

grounds but that the day would be spent in getting the cripled players back into The Shortridge eleven will appear for the first time to-day in white stockings, which have been secured for the team by -Manager Tuck. Captain Clark announced yesterday that the team was in first-class shape and that barring accidents it would come home from Sheridan with a victory. Allerdice will play his first game on the first team to-day at Sheridan, when he takes his place as full back in the line-up. Joseph played but one game on the first team last year and this will be his first appearance this year. Coach Brewer stated vesterday that the report that Captain Cline of the second team was ruled off the field for swearing was erroneous and said that Captain Cline was asked to leave the gridiron for talking back to the coach, The Shortridge team will line up to-day at Sheridan as follows: Shank, left end: Conner, left tackle; Payne, left guard; Buser, center; Lieber, right guard; Gipe, right tackle; De War, right end; McKinney, quarter back; Joseph or Allerdice, full back, and Captain Clark, right half. Aronson, Patton and Schoen will accompany the team as substitutes. DENTIST IS A SPECIALIST.

He Only Pulls Teeth-Others Send Patients to Him.

On the seventh floor of a building on Woodward avenue there is a dentist who does nothing but pull teeth, and, strange to say, most of his customers are sent to Tooth pulling is his specialty, and no money could hire him to fill a tooth or build a bridge. If he did anything except pull teeth he might as well shut up shop. for the other dentists wouldn't have anything more to do with him. That's his strong point. The other dentists trust him -not to steal their customers. Dentists don't like to pull teeth. It is more trouble than it is worth. When anybody wants a tooth pulled he wants it done es to the dentist's and expects him to leave a patient in the chair while he yanks out the offending molar, or, worse still, the patient must leave the chair. If the dentist has only one. The dentist doesn't like to refuse a customer whose sufferings demand immediate attention, and yet he may be engaged on a difficult job that will pay him many times as much as the paltry fee for yanking out a tooth. He would like to have the sufferer take his tooth somewhere else, but dares not recommend another dentist, for fear of losing the customer's trade. There is nothing that pleases a customer so much as the successful extraction of a tooth. Few people, either men or women, have teeth pulled without dreading the operaand if the dentist does a neat job with little pain, he earns their everlasting 'The dentist whose customer wants tooth pulled knows this, and he also knows, if the customer demands gas, that he runs some risk of not giving satisfaction, owing to unavoidable impunities of gas and the difficulty of properly administering it. The commercial nitrous oxide gas used by dentists is bought ready made, put up in fluid form in steel cylinders under great pressure, and cannot be relied upon with certainty. If it should be impure the patient will suffer more or less nausea, besides not getting completely under the influence of the anaesthetic. The effect of the purest gas, administered by an expert, lasts only a fraction of a minute, and the tooth must be pulled during the few seconds the patient is unconscious, or there will be trouble. For these and other reasons the average dentist avoids pulling teeth, and a specialist having located in Detroit this summer they send their patients to him. He manufactures his own gas, knowing it to be absolutely pure, and as he does nothing else but pull teeth, his patients are separated from their molars under the best possible conditions and ge away sat-It is no uncommon thing for women to have several teeth extracted before leaving the chair. The other day this dentist pulled fourteen teeth for a woman, and a young girl had twelve pulled out. They took gas, but it is needless to say that ail the teeth were not pulled immediately. If the dentist kept right on yanking teeth a good deal of blood would be swallowed by the unconscious patient, which would cause nausea. The operator pulls a few teeth, and walts for the bleeding to subside, or plugs up the cavities long enough to administer a fresh dose and yank out a few more, and so on till the job is done, Candidate for Boreing's Seat.
